

Week 4 Homework

Choose one of the following prompts and write an essay on The Call of the Wild:

- 1) How important is the setting for London's story? Remember there are two different settings.
- 2) Who is the narrator of the story and why did London use this type of narration to accomplish his story where a dog is the protagonist?
- 3) Write on the theme of "survival of the fittest" in the novel and how London develops it.

Vocabulary:

Precipitate—done with great haste and without due deliberation

Primordial— pertaining to or existing at or from the very beginning

Progeny— a descendant or offspring

Salient—important

Vicarious—acting or done for another