

WTL Homework Week 30

- 1) While you wait for your first draft to be reviewed, consider areas of your paper you know are weak:
 - Find your shortest paragraph and add to your explanation
 - Make sure you I.C.E. your quotes
 - Improve your lead by finding a better story about your hero
 - Ask someone to read through your paper to find areas that are confusing

- 2) Poetry: Write a poem of things nobody ever said to you. Rhyme it. I rhymed every other line. Also, you might include both positive and negative comments.

My example:

Nobody ever said to me...
Your singing is lovely!
What beautiful blonde hair.
I'll fly you to Paris,
You're a multi-millionaire!

Why would anyone want you?
I don't love you at all.
Please never come to my house,
Did we meet in Senegal?

- 3) Study the practice quiz to prepare for your test on the last day of class.
Vocabulary:

Astute—shrewd; keen in judgment

Enigma—a mystery

Equanimity—composure; calm

Impudent—not showing due respect for another person

Malicious—intending or intended to do harm