

Vocabulary 4 Practice Quiz

- a) Apathy—
- b) Astute
- c) Audacious
- d) Bravado
- e) Capricious
- f) Carnage
- g) Conciliatory
- h) Contemptible
- i) Denounce
- j) Eccentric
- k) Effusive
- l) Elusive
- m) Enigma
- n) Equanimity
- o) Impetuous
- p) Impudent
- q) Inane
- r) Incredulous
- s) Innate
- t) Insinuation
- u) Jovial
- v) Largess
- w) Ludicrous
- x) Malicious
- y) Obstinate
- z) Ostentatious
- aa) Pariah
- bb) Peremptory
- cc) Precursors
- dd) Prosaic
- ee) Prudent
- ff) Reprobate
- gg) Seething
- hh) Semblance
- ii) Zeal

1.   w   silly, irrational
2.   p   not showing due respect for another person
3.  ff   a person without moral scruples
4.   e   unpredictable; making sudden changes
5.   u   cheerful and friendly
6.   m   a mystery
7.   ii   active interest and enthusiasm
8.   t   hint, subtle suggestion
9.   z   excessively conspicuous; showing off
10. bb   putting an end to all debate or action
11.   r   unbelieving
12.   h   deserving of scorn
13.   y   stubbornly unyielding to the wishes of others
14.  gg   filled with intense but unexpressed anger
15.   b   shrewd; keen in judgment
16.   ee   sensible and careful
17.   l   difficult to get hold of
18.  aa   an outcast
19.   q   lacking substance, perhaps silly
20.   s   existing since birth; inborn
21.   j   unconventional or strange
22.   g   making peace
23.   x   intending or intended to do harm
24.   f   the savage killing of many people
25.  cc   forerunners or predecessor
26.   k   uttered with unrestrained enthusiasm
27.   d   false courage or bravery
28.   o   impulsive; extremely impatient
29.   a   lack of interest and enthusiasm
30.  dd   dull, unimaginative
31.   v   generosity; kindness
32.   c   bold and daring
33.   n   composure; calm
34.   i   to strongly criticize or accuse publicly
35.  hh   the outward appearance or apparent form of something, esp. when reality is different